

Lopez Ramos Asael Efrain
11-10-2024

Many people use tablet computers to make video calls.

You can use your smartphone to get directions.

Engineers use 3-D printers to make car parts.

People can use internet for learning languages.

Companies sometimes use robots for performing dangerous tasks.

The police use drones for looking for criminals.

I study english for traveling.

I study english to travel.

---

Read each sentence about a technology item. Write two sentences about the item's use and purpose. Use the information in parentheses.

1. My sister's car has a built-in GPS system. (She use / get directions)
  - a. She uses the GPS system to get directions.
  - b. She uses the GPS system for getting directions.
2. I love my new smartphone. (I use / take pictures)
  - a. I use my new smartphone to take pictures.
  - b. I use my new smartphone for taking pictures.
3. That's a flash drive. (You use / back up files)
  - a. You use a flash drive to back up files.
  - b. You use a flash drive for backing up files.
4. My little brother wants his own laptop. (He would only use / watch movies and play games)
  - a. He would only use to watch movies and play videogames.
  - b. He would only use for watching movies and play videogames.
5. I'm often on my computer all day long. (I use / shop online and do research)
  - a. I use my computer all day long to shop online and do research.
  - b. I use my computer all day long for shopping online and do research.